

Silvia joined CRIF in 1997 and since then she has held roles in various functions. Currently she is the Director of Public Affairs for Business Information, Real Estate, BPO, NPL and Collection Services.

At CRIF, Silvia has first dealt with International Business Information, being responsible for the first office established by CRIF in the United States and for SkyMinder, the CRIF platform for global business information.

Before her current role, she managed the operations for Property Valuation and Real Estate Information Services, offered to banks and financial institutions – as well as consumers – in line with the most rigorous valuation standards.

Silvia is also Board Member of TEGoVA (the European Group of Valuers' Associations), VicePresident of ASSOVI (the association representing Italian valuation companies), Member of the Executive Council of FIABCI (International Real Estate Federation), Observer Member of the European Mortgage Federation and member of the NPL working group at the Italian Banking Association.
