

Luis Carmona

Luis, Spanish National, joined INFORMA in 1999. Since then, he has held roles in various functions including; company strategy, business international expansion, sales, marketing and Regulatory and Public affairs.

At present, he is the International Manager leading; special adhoc divisions, business developing teams and Public Affairs. Luis, is also involved in numerous partnerships and in the internationalisation of subsidiaries.

Prior to Informa's roles, Luis was involved in EU Law infringement procedures and Eco Taxes (EU Commission) and International Trade Organisations.

Luis education counts with a five-year Law Degree UAM (Madrid), a Masters in "Business Management Development"– UAN (Madrid), Masters in International Trade - CEOE and Masters in Environmental Management and Policy - U. Carlos III (Madrid). Postgraduate Course in Natural Resources Management - Northwest College WY. Awarded with a Comett Scholarship and has published articles on eco taxes.