

Iberinform acquires an 80% share in Ignios

Madrid September 29, Iberinform acquired an 80% share in Ignios and its subsidiary Gestifatura. The remaining 20% of the Ignios shares are owned by Vértice Fronteira SGPS.

Created in 1947, Ignios was the first company to offer commercial and financial information in Portugal providing services to more than 8,000 users. Ignios, which has been for many years the source of information in Portugal for Iberinform, has a physical presence in Lisbon and Oporto. Its subsidiary Gestifatura is specialised in the recovery of domestic and international corporate debt, and has over 20 years of experience in the Portuguese market.

This operation, after years of partnership, will allow Iberinform and Ignios to consolidate a powerful range of products and services in the Iberian market and strengthen their technical capabilities. Both companies have an aligned vision about the value and use of information and information technology. Together they can incorporate more focused and aligned strategies to harness and share vast amounts of data to help our customers grow.

Iberinform is the information services company of Credito y Caucion, the primary credit insurance company of Atradius in Spain, Portugal and Brazil.

About Atradius:
